AGED MAN DRAGGED BY RUNAWAY HORSE, BUT STOPS ANIMAL

PLEASURE TRIP OF MT. VERNON, N. Y., MAN INTERRUPTED BY ACCIDENT IN WHICH HE LOSES MUCH SKIN.

George Howard, aged 72, 143 Prospect avenue, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., while driving through this city on his way to Thomaston, at 7:15 this morning was thrown from his carriage and dragged several hundred feet. He was passing through Stratford avenue where the street is torn up by the Connecticut company to make repairs and he was obliged to take the left hand side of the street, where his rig was crowded close to the curb by a trolley car. The horse became frightened and turned suddenly, throwing Howard into the street. Howard pluckily held to the lines, until his weight dragging on the bits, stopped the animal. Workmen picked him up and the ambulance was called. Dr. Kiernan, found abrasions on the face, hands and back of the aged driver, and lacerated wounds upon his lower lip. The old man presented to the eye a pitiful spectacle, but fortunately none of his bones were broken. After he was treated, Claim Agent Aaron Gould, of the Connecticut Company took him in charge.

German Catholic Notes

During the months of July and August the masses on Sundays at St. Joseph's German R. C. church, Madison avenue, Rev. Fr. Dahme, pastor will be held at 8 and 10 a. m. The members of the St. Boniface German Catholic Social Club and also of the Children of Mary Sodality of St. Joseph's parish will receive communion in a body during the first mass on Sunday, July 4. The members of the latter society will hold their monthly meeting Sunday at 8:45 a. m. and the members of the former society will hold their semi-annual meeting Sunday at 8:45 a. m. when election of officers will take place for the ensuing six months.

THE THEATRES

POLI'S

Last performances of "In Missouri" Augustus Thomas great play of the West are now on. Lovers of the real things in dramatic art should not miss this play.

Tomorrow afternoon at Poli's a special carnation reception will be given. The members of the entire company will receive patrons on the stage at the close of the performance. Real carnations from Mr. Poli's own conservatories will be given as souvenirs.

"Zaza." David Belasco's great sensational drama will be the offering at Poli's next week. In bringing "Zaza" to Bridgeport Mr. Poli has assumed an unusual expense negotiating with Mr. Belasco for several weeks in order to secure the right to produce the famous play. Miss Alice Fleming will appear in the role of "Zaza" while Mr. Ince will be the Bernard Dufrene of the piece. The cast will be largely augmented in order that several of the scenes, more especially the concert hall scene, showing "Zaza's" dressing room may be portrayed with the greatest possible realism.

"Zaza" will be found to be one of the most sensational offerings of the Poli stock season.

There are but few of those coupons left for the silk hosiery to be presented to some lady patron at next Monday's matinee. These "Zaza Stockings" are the best the market affords, and one dozen pairs will be given to some lady patron on next Monday afternoon. It is essential that the person holding the winning number be in the auditorium when the drawing takes place.

"When it's awful hot" nature says, "Williams' Root Beer." Has the cooling qualities of the woods. Easy to make.

STRATFORD

Movements of Persons—New Officers—Next Town Meeting—More Stealing of Flowers—Picnics—Temperance Union—Returned Home.

Miss Edith Turner, one of our teachers, will spend the summer in Falmouth, N. J., her home. Mr. Herbert Fryer and Lee Clinton are with Mr. Kenneth Peck while on his cruise through the Sound.

Mr. George A. Fairchild has been elected prophet of the Okenuck tribe. Mr. Charles Plumb has been visiting in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilkes are spending a portion of their wedding trip in Hartford.

Miss Ellen Olney Kirk has ended her visit in town and gone to Rochester.

The annual picnic of the Housatonic grange is in the hands of Harry Wilcoxson, William Beardsley and Nathan Wells.

The gentlemen composing the joint committee to consider the various questions in connection with the school situation, held a meeting last night. It is now said that the next town meeting will be on July 6, but when it adjourned it did so for two weeks only, which would fetch the date for Monday evening.

The following ladies have been elected officers in the Star of Stratford lodge: Mary L. Rogerson, Nellie Wheeler, Ruby Payne, Isabelle Siborn, Sadie Blamey, and Rhoda King, also the following gentlemen: Clifford Leavenworth, John Moon, James Lalley, Alex. Rishberg and John W. Rogerson.

Mr. Walter Hubbell has become the Grand Noble of the Odd Fellows Lodge.

Mrs. Louise Carey, after a visit in town, has returned to Sandy Hook.

There is a rumor that our teacher of music and drawing, in the center school, is to be married in the fall, out in Ohio, and consequently will not return to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clements have recently celebrated their first wedding anniversary. Some 40 guests were present and a very enjoyable time was had.

Mr. Falken, of the Pullman Palace Car Company, came up to town on Tuesday evening to remain until next Tuesday.

Mrs. James E. Hamilton, of Simsbury is visiting her relatives at the Falken residence on King street.

Mr. Daniel Leech is suffering from blood poisoning in both arms. He became inoculated with the virus from a cow he was milking.

A well known florist of this town recently sent $5 worth of flowers to be placed upon a grave in Union cemetery. During the night all were stolen, as well as the urn which contained them.

Rev. C. S. Bullock expects to return from Detroit in season to preach on Sunday at the Neighborhood church.

Mr. Earl Porter is suffering from a case of poison caused by ivy.

This afternoon the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the house of Miss Myra Curtis. There was much congratulation over the fact that the prohibitionists won a victory in Tennessee.

Mr. D. C. Wood has recently lost a valuable horse.

Wednesday Mr. David Rhoades launched his boat, "Felix," and to-day Mr. Alex. St. John launches his boat "Zelma." It is said all the local fleet has been put into the water.

A meeting was held last night at Red Men's hall for the purpose of instituting a chapter of women to be known as the Pocahontas tribe.

The fire company held its regular monthly meeting last night.

The Methodist people are rejoicing over the fact that under Mr. Brandt's leadership, there will soon be a good choir to accompany the organ.

The only barber shop in town has got a new roof of shingles.

Mr. A. C. Wetmore, who has been tutoring with Rev. Arthur Sherley, has returned to his home in New Britain, but he will be in town, off and on, all summer.

THE ONLY EYES YOU'LL EVER HAVE

are the ones you have got now. If you spoil them you can't have them replaced. If they give you any trouble, take it in time. Don't put it off until it is too late. We should advise you to see our eyesight specialist, a man who has made the refraction of the eye his life study and specialty, and who does nothing else but examine eyes for defective vision and anomalies of its muscles.
